

Your combined gift with another and another gives you the power to change thousands of stories

(See below what $50 can do)

DAVIESS COUNTY TOGETHER WE CAN CHANGE THE STORY

AACS – Early Head Start with your gift can change a story by providing books locally to continue in supporting literacy with our infants and toddlers, pay for a case of construction paper, pay for two mega packs of Pull-Ups, pay for a ½ case of crayons or a ½ case of markers, or purchasing bottles of washable paint for learning activities.

Daviess County Senior Services – Munday Activity Center with your gift can change a story by providing an exercise program for 35 days to assist with keeping seniors active. Your gift can also change a story by providing congregate meals to homebound seniors that otherwise might not get a nutritional meal for the day. Your gift can also provide printed information on nutrition and health or purchasing art supplies for artistic classes, as well as prizes to be given out to winners of various planned activities.

Foster Grandparent Program with your gift can change a story by providing a Foster Grandparent's stipend for 19 hours of one-on-one attention to a young child who is academically or behaviorally at risk in school, preschool, or daycare.

Girls Incorporated of Owensboro-Daviess County with your gift can change a story by providing girls living in Public Housing an opportunity to attend over 180 days of quality, safe programming in our afterschool program designed to inspire them to become strong, responsible, healthy and contributing members of the community.

Hospice of Western Kentucky with your gift can change a story by providing Depends for patients, or by covering a one-month supply of certain medications for pain and symptom control. Your gift can change a story by providing a heavy-duty wheelchair for an obese patient, a shower chair or a bedside commode.

Owensboro Family YMCA with your gift can change a story by providing kids with an opportunity to go on a summer day camp field trip or kids receiving healthy snacks along with educational materials on how to live and eat healthy.

RSVP with your gift can change a story by providing one week of transportation cost to and from volunteer assignments where the RSVP volunteers' service enhances organization's capacity to make an impact on critical community needs.

The ARC of Owensboro, Inc. with your gift can change a story by providing individuals training and interaction to assist them in becoming more independent and be able to avail themselves of opportunities to become a more productive and contributing members of society.

Your combined gift with another and another gives you the power to change thousands of stories
(See below what $50 can do)

HANCOCK COUNTY TOGETHER WE CAN CHANGE THE STORY

American Red Cross with your gift can change a story by providing training for four 12 year old girls to be certified babysitters; or teach seven children to swim; or buy new clothes for a mom burned out of her home; or purchase baby food and diapers for an infant displaced due to a fire; or purchase 10 blankets for a disaster shelter; or teach a mom life-saving CPR and first aid; or offer pet first aid to two people.

Hancock County Adult Education with your gift can change a story by providing one KET on-line course with workbooks for a distance learner, one GED calculator to meet new standardized requirements for someone to use for assignments, or two workbooks to meet new standardized requirements.

Hancock County Family Resource Center with your gift can change a story by providing a child with new tennis shoes, jeans, a package of underwear and socks, two shirts and a backpack filled with school supplies.

Hancock County Help Office with your gift can change a story by providing assistance for a utility bill, doctor or dental bill, help fill medical prescriptions, provide emergency food, help supplement expenses at the Thrift Center, such as garbage bags, tape, label tags, etc.

Hancock County Food Pantry with your gift can change a story by providing extra food and toiletry items for the monthly food giveaway.

Hancock County Senior Citizens Center with your gift can change a story by providing Bingo prizes, supplies for craft classes, equipment for Bingocize and seasonal decorations.

New Beginnings Sexual Assault Support Services with your gift can change a story by providing play therapy supplies for three children receiving therapy services. These include scrapbooks, cardstock, glue, page protectors and stickers. Also your gift can provide coloring books or Body Safety credit cards with the five rules for keeping safe.

Repair Affair with your gift can change a story by providing paint for a room, wood sealer for a wheel chair ramp, a faucet set for sink and even a broom and dustpan for cleaning. There are many things that can be purchased to change someone's story.

Senior Companion Program with your gift can change a story by providing a stipend for a Senior Companion to serve 19 hours of one-on-one attention to a frail elderly individual who needs assistance to stay in their home, instead of being institutionalized.

Your combined gift with another and another gives you the power to
change thousands of stories

(See below what $50 can do)

OHIO COUNTY TOGETHER WE CAN CHANGE THE STORY

CASA of Ohio Valley with your gift can change a story by providing training materials for volunteers (literature, training manuals, mileage for staff, food). Change a story by providing advertisement to recruitment of new volunteer advocates or upcoming events CASA will host as well as assist with expenses in hosting a community wide training workshop in Ohio County.

Daniel Pitino Shelter with your gift can change a story by providing coverage for the cost of the admissions and materials for one client, personal hygiene items available to five residents and ten blankets or five pillows to Boulware residents so they will have a comfortable and warm place to sleep. Allow for staff to counsel one group session. Pay for five AA books (Alcoholics Anonymous) to aid in recovery.

Hospice of Ohio County with your gift can change a story by providing comfort medications, educational materials, nursing care, aide visits and other supplies necessary to ensure that the patient and family needs are being addressed.

Imagination Library with your gift can change a story by providing reading books to children.

Salvation Army with your gift can change a story by providing provide fuel for a family traveling out of county for a medical appointment, assist in paying a electric , gas or water bill so that family services are not disconnected, buying groceries or providing Thanksgiving or Christmas food baskets to families in need.

Senior Companion Program with your gift can change a story by providing a stipend for a Senior Companion to serve 19 hours of one-on-one attention to a frail elderly individual who needs assistance to stay in their home, instead of being institutionalized.

SkillTrain – Ohio County with your gift can change a story by providing the necessary funds to help students pay for the GED examination fee which currently cost $60 to take the test.

Your combined gift with another and another gives you the power to change thousands of stories

(See below what $50 can do)

UNION COUNTY TOGETHER WE CAN CHANGE THE STORY

Ben's Place Adult Day Health Care with your gift can change a story by providing crafts for our clients' enjoyment and to also provide birthday party celebrations for individual recognition.

Boy Scouts, Lincoln Heritage Council with your gift can change a story by fund Camperships to Cub Scouts to attend weeklong Day Camps, or fund Campership to Boy Scouts wanting to attend weeklong summer camp.

Building Stronger Families with your gift can change a story by providing home visits with travel and purchasing materials such as parent workbooks to assist in building stronger families.

New Beginnings Sexual Assault Support Services, Inc. with your gift can change a story by providing funding for clients to receive therapy sessions for children and for adults who have been sexually abused.

OASIS (Spouse Abuse Shelter) with your gift can change a story by providing sessions of court advocacy for clients, clothing and hygiene items for client in crisis, program supplies to use in group or individual counseling sessions, safe travel for a clients to the Owensboro shelter, and prescription payments for client in crisis.

RSVP with your gift can change a story by providing one week of transportation cost to and from volunteer assignments where the RSVP volunteers' service enhances organization's capacity to make an impact on critical community needs.

Senior Companion Program with your gift can change a story by providing a stipend for a Senior Companion to serve 19 hours of one-on-one attention to a frail elderly individual who needs assistance to stay in their home, instead of being institutionalized.

Union County Happy Pack, Inc. with your gift can change a story by providing school aged children with a "Happy Pack" full of good, nutritious food items that will be sent home with them every weekend. There are so many children out there that do not get much to eat at home because families are just not able to provide enough nutritious food items for their children.