

Help Office

A local family that does a lot of community service work for our community experienced some financial hardships and reluctantly requested assistance with an exorbitant utility bill. We were happy to help this family that simply fell on hard times.